

PUMA BRANDENBURG LIMITED

Modern Slavery Statement

Modern Slavery Act

At Puma Brandenburg, we are committed to running our business responsibly. We endeavour to uphold the highest ethical principles and to respect human rights. It also means doing our best to encourage high standards in our supply chain and business.

Services and supply

Puma Brandenburg invests in and provides capital to businesses operating in a range of sectors, and takes care through its due diligence to seek to invest in companies with reputable supply chains.

Given what Puma Brandenburg understands to be a low risk profile of anyone supplying us with services, or anyone we supply services to, being involved in slavery and/or human trafficking, we believe our current procedures and ability to rely on regulatory oversight in relation to professional services are sufficient in this regard.

Goods

As a firm, most goods supplied to Puma Brandenburg will be goods for use in an office environment. Puma Brandenburg considers the supply of such goods to have a low risk profile relating to slavery and/or human trafficking therefore no specific training is provided or undertaken in relation to these matters.

Employee training, recruitment and welfare

Puma Brandenburg seeks to only work with professional advisers that provide its employees and management with training on a range of compliance matters including Modern Slavery, particularly in relation to mitigating risks within supply chains.

Puma Brandenburg seeks to only work with professional advisers that use reputable recruitment firms and complies with all relevant local laws and regulations.
